CHECKLIST

Old World vs New World: A Quick Tasting Checklist

- [ ] Notice whether the fruit flavour is quiet and tart or loud and generous
- [ ] Smell for earthy or mineral notes before tasting
- [ ] Check whether the label names a place or a grape variety
- [ ] Pick one grape made in both an old and a new world region to compare side by side
- [ ] Note how much oak influence you can taste or smell
- [ ] Write down your own preference without worrying about which style is considered traditional
- [ ] Match the wine's acidity and fruit style to the richness of your food